Discover a better way to carry your iPad and always have it ready at your side with CTA Digital's Hands-Free Carrying Case for iPad. This stylish and compact case features a unique retractable iPad holder that makes it very easy to access and use the iPad without ever needing to remove it from the carrying case. Free your hands and comfortably carry the iPad with this built-in support system and a padded messenger-style adjustable strap across the shoulder. Simply unzip the clamshell case and slide out the iPad tray when needed. The tray securely holds the iPad and can conveniently rotate to switch between horizontal or vertical views and just as easily be slid back into the case. The case is comfortable to wear and helps protect the iPad with its soft cushioned design. It also has a zippered pocket on the front for storing accessories and two extra storage pockets on the shoulder strap, ideal for holding a phone or small items. So enjoy comfortably taking the iPad wherever you go without having to hold it all the time, and find a smarter way with this Hands-Free Carrying Case for iPad from CTA Digital.
